Teaching candidates with a valid and current Louisiana teaching certificate and teaching experience are preferred. Candidates that hold a Bachelor's degree without a teaching certificate will be considered.

FBCS offers a quality education in a Christian environment and believes each student can reach their full potential with hard work, discipline, and encouragement. As we prepare our students to be well rounded, educated individuals, it is our greatest desire to teach our students how to have a personal relationship with the Lord and walk in His righteousness. We look for staff members willing to join us in our goals.

Please email this completed application along with a copy of your resume, transcripts, and teaching certification to student.services@fbcseagles.com.
